

A

*Dedicated to Opa
He stood tall and loved deeply,
He was gentle and strong.
In a place cold and foreign,
He worked so we could belong.*

Moved By Mercy

Blessed are the tender souls,
There dwells our Lord who cares.
He strengthens those who love,
For His mercy is theirs.

Mercy can move them to do what they cannot
And to reach high and far,
Mercy can move them to love how they cannot,
And to be more than they are.
Mercy can move them to see what they would not,
And to say what they must,
Mercy can move them to fight what they could not,
And to live in His trust.

Blessed are those who follow His Star,
They glow with His light from above.
Their mercy lifts those who have fallen so far,
And paves here the path of His love.
